How is the course delivered and assessed?

The length of the course will depend on our delivery partner running the course. It should take approximately 40 hours to deliver the taught content and to prepare and submit the two written assignments for assessment by Cadet Vocational College. These will be based on your responsibilities in either your workplace, cadet unit or youth organisation.

If you are considering going to university or college it is perhaps worth knowing that this ILM Level 3 qualification, awarded by City & Guilds, attracts 8 UCAS points.

Entry requirements

To enrol, you must be aged 16 or over, a UK resident for three years, and have ideally achieved an English GCSE at Grade 4 (C) or equivalent. You must also be in a position where you are responsible for leading or managing others.

How will I be supported?

You will be supported by our delivery partner together with our Teaching and Learning team at Cadet Vocational College.

You can enrol and achieve this qualification at any time during the year.

How much does it cost?

Please telephone 01276 601701 or email us at ilm@cvcollege.org to find out about our latest fees and discover whether you may be eligible for a Cadet Vocational College bursary.
